

Standards of Training in Gas Work

Gas Skills Training and Assessment

INFORMATION SHEET

Title	STGW 100 LPG Safety - Touring Caravans and Motorhomes
Duration	Initial 5 days Renewal 3 days
Aims and Objectives	A training and assessment programme designed to clearly identify the skills and knowledge required by a competent person, to safely carry out safety checks and gas work in relation to systems and appliances installed in touring caravans and motorhomes.
Scope	This programme is intended for operatives engaged in the installation, service and maintenance of gas systems and appliances currently found within touring caravans and motorhomes.
Pre-Requisites	Candidates must have completed a basic health and safety course and possess a working knowledge of touring caravans and motorhomes.
Training	The training programme will utilise our Book 5 Touring Caravans and Motorhomes training manual (200+ pages) and encompass the following topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Legislation, Regulations and Standards• Properties and characteristics of LPG• Complete and incomplete combustion• Gas storage• Gas pipework• Tightness testing• Flues• Ventilation• Appliances• Commissioning and annual gas safety checks
Competence	The candidate's knowledge and understanding of the subject will be established by the application of multi-choice theoretical question papers and completion of specified practical tasks.
Assessment	The assessments will be conducted by an assessor qualified to A1 or equivalent standard.
Verification	The assessment process will be verified by an internal verifier qualified to V1 or equivalent standard.
Certification	The programme will be certificated by LPG Training. An eCert (electronic certificate of competence) and photo ID card will be issued to successful candidates. This qualification is valid for a period of five years from the date of completion. Our certification is accepted by the Leisure Industry and regulatory bodies as proof of gas competence, including the NCC Approved Workshop Scheme (AWS).